

JOHN HARRIGAN: Co-Founder
(1947-1923) In Memorium

John Harrigan, widely respected outdoors writer, hunter, fisherman, sheep farmer and pundit, co-founded our Coalition following the defeat of a misconceived effort to open a hunt on the bobcat. He had a thing for wild cats and foxes and took pride in coexisting with coyotes who never bothered his sheep.

Until his death he believed wildlife, a public trust shared by all, should get a “better deal” with a more open and democratic governance structure at NH Fish & Game. We will continue to work for that ‘better deal’ with the support of our members and allies throughout New Hampshire.

Rest in Peace, dear friend.
